The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Friday Evening, Jan'y 4, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

The Tenders at Washington.

The excitement at Washington is on the increase. It is becoming more and more certain that no compromise can be offered by the north which the hot heads of the south will accept. The Missouri compromise line is not enough—the repeal of the personal liberty laws will not suffice—nothing will do but the recognition, by a constitutional amendment, that slaves shall be protected as any other property in the territories, and a permission to sojourn with them, as long as they please, in the free states. This will never be yielded by the north, though the alternative be civil war.

It is stated that the southern men are more ferocious and menacing, while the northern men are firm and determined. The latter are ready for an immediate issue. The members of the Pennsylvania delegation are becoming aroused, and declare positively that their state will vote a large amount of money, and one hundred thousand men to sustain the Union. The House, which so far, has been temporizing, has shown some vigor by laying Foy's resolution against coercion upon the table by a decisive vote.

The president is said not to know six hours ahead what course he will take in regard to Maj. Anderson or the enforcement of the laws in South Carolina. The presidential features have been turned slightly northward within the last few days. He sees a storm coming up from that direction, and he veers around, as if preparing to sail with the new breeze. The nomination of a northern collector for the nation of Charles too looks like business. We shall see, soon, what it means.

It is evident, however, that the president cannot long dodge the responsibility of taking a decided course. What it will be, no man can foretell.

The Chicago Tribune's correspondent says there is a marvelous change coming over the democrats at Washington. They are getting sick of defending southern secession and treason. Even John Cochrane, McClellan, Larabee, Bright and Bigler, are cutting loose from the pro-slavery ship, and like rats are taking themselves away from the sinking bulk. We hope this is true, but we can hardly credit it.

The fears appear to be well grounded that an attack is to be made upon the capital previous to Lincoln's inauguration, by the fanatical secessionists of Virginia and Maryland. Measures begin to be taken with such a result in view. The militia of the District of Columbia is to be reorganized; but the friends of the Union are slow. Mr. Buchanan's hesitation and treacherous character, are stumbling blocks in their way. They have no concerted action, and are evidently doing little to protect themselves from impending danger. The tendencies at the capital all point towards violence and bloodshed. We should not be surprised to hear, at any moment, that assassination had done its murderous work upon some prominent republican.

Congress.—The doings of congress are meager in the extreme. In the senate on the second, Mr. Baker of California made a speech against secession. Mr. Davis of Mississippi offered a resolution authorizing the president, on application of any state, either through its convention or legislature, to withdraw federal garrisons and take needed security for the safety of public property remaining; directing the president to recognize the right of any state to keep troops and ships of war; to give information to all parties concerned by proclamation. Laid on the table and ordered printed. In the house on the same day, the resolution of Mr. Davis of Indiana, instructing the judiciary committee to inquire what legislation has become necessary on account of the secession position of South Carolina, came up, when Mr. Davis withdrew his resolution. Mr. Sherman contended that he had no right to do so. The speaker decided that he had. Mr. S. offered Mr. Davis resolution as his own.

The speaker again decided against Mr. S., who took an appeal, and after considerable filibustering, the house adjourned. On the 3d little was done of public interest, and they finally adjourned for want of a quorum till Monday next.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—The annual election of officers of the State Historical Society took place yesterday. Gen. Wm. R. Smith was elected President; Lafayette Kellogg, Recording Secretary; Lyman C. Draper, Corresponding Secretary; O. M. Conover, Treasurer; and Daniel S. Durria, Librarian. There was considerable excitement in Madison over the election. The rest of the state looked on calmly.

The Southern Army.—The south has a good deal to say about her army. The following table shows the number of men between twenty and seventy years of age in the cotton states:

South Carolina.....	60,500
Alabama.....	86,000
Florida.....	21,000
Georgia.....	106,000
Mississippi.....	60,000
Louisiana.....	63,000
Total.....	398,000

Which is less than the number of men of the same age in Ohio, and but one-tenth of the number of able-bodied men of the Union.

THE LUMBER BUSINESS OF CHICAGO.—There was on hand at the close of 1859 in Chicago, 118,157,000 feet of lumber, 294,000 shingles, and 13,479,000 lath. The receipts during the season just closed were, lumber, 263,620,016; shingles, 117,075,500; lath, 28,118,856. The sales during the same period were, lumber, 287,693,015; shingles, 130,224,500; lath, 31,281,866.

"You want nothing, do you?" said Pat. "An' sure, if its nothing you want, you find it in the jug where the whisky was last night!"

The President's Bargain with South Carolina.

The Chicago Times is the only paper in the northwest, so far as we have observed, which apologizes for the secessionists and denounces Maj. Anderson for taking possession of Fort Sumpter. It justifies its condemnation of Anderson because an agreement had been made between the president and the traitors that he would not make any movement against them on account of their secession, if they would respect the property of the nation in Charleston!

What right has the president to make such a disgraceful arrangement? He is sworn to execute the laws of the nation in South Carolina, as well as in all the other states. That is his duty, and any bargain of this sort is done in defiance of law and in violation of his solemn oath. It makes him to all intents a party to their acts of treason both before and after the "arrangement" was made. South Carolina had already defied all the laws of the country by her act of secession before Anderson left Fort Moultrie. She had taken possession of 73,000 stand of arms belonging to the United States—passed ordinances absolving citizens and officials from their oaths of allegiance, prohibited the execution within her borders of every law of the Union, and taken measures to levy war against it.

What more need to constitute treason? And yet it is said that under these circumstances the president of the United States dared to make a bargain to forbear the enforcement of the laws he had sworn before heaven to execute?

Let it be marked and remembered that the president's apologists, as well as the South Carolina commissioners, asserts that this contract to permit the laws and the constitution to be violated in South Carolina, was assented to by the president. Have we a government or not, when the highest executive officer of the nation takes upon himself to observe a whole state from its duty as a member of the confederacy?

Under such circumstances it passes belief that one sane man can be found, in the northwest who will boldly justify such a proceeding. But it is even so—the Chicago Times does it, openly in the face of day.

What Shall Be Done?

There is a very general feeling among the people in this community that something should be done, here in Wisconsin, to prepare to defend the capital of the country against the traitors who are menacing the government. Every telegraphic despatch, and every letter we receive from Washington confirms the apprehension that there is danger, and that the capital will be attacked by the madmen who are attempting to dissolve the Union. Our senators and representatives would hesitate, without the most indubitable proof, to say that they are in personal danger, and need the protecting arm of the state to shield them. On this account they may wait too long before they call upon their constituents for aid. The crazy pro-slavery fanatics are near them, organised for mischief, while the state of Wisconsin is distant from their post of danger.

On motion of Mr. Thomas, an appropriation of $1000 was made to the sheriff in payment of board of prisoners to be drawn quarterly.

On motion of Mr. Northrup, a committee of three was appointed to ascertain what money is due the county on forfeited recognizances. Messrs. Huskins, Downing and Foot were appointed such committee.

Eleven o'clock, Friday morning was fixed for the election of a commissioner of the county poor, and the Board adjourned to 9 o'clock Friday.

FRIDAY MORNING, 9 o'clock.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, and the minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Mr. S. S. Northrup, from the committee on justices' and constables' accounts, moved a reconsideration of the vote allowing J. E. Young $50 for going to Kalamazoo to arrest Alvin B. Shearer, who had absconded with another man's wife. The motion to reconsider was adopted, and after discussion the claim was again allowed.

The memorial of McKey & Brother to replace certain lost county orders was taken from the table, and new orders were authorized on condition of the execution of a bond in double the amount to indemnify the county against loss, and the orders to remain in the hands of the clerk of the board for one year before delivery.

A number of bills for sheriff's fees, amounting to $696,41 were presented and referred.

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of returning to H. K. Whiton the tax certificate presented by him for cancellation, no further information having been obtained in relation to it. Report adopted.

On motion of Mr. M. A. Northrup, chairman of the committee on county poor, all bills incurred for the support of the poor are required to be first submitted to the poor commissioners, who shall certify to their correctness before they are presented to the board of supervisors.

On motion of Mr. Atwood, the authority of chairman of town boards to expend $10, for aid to the poor was revoked.

The board then proceeded to the election of a poor commissioner.

Informal Ballot—26 votes cast, of which Volney Atwood received 16, E. A. Howland 5, and Lyman Smith 6.

Formal Ballot—25 votes cast, of which Mr. Atwood received 20, Mr. Howland 3, and Mr. Smith 2.

Volney Atwood was therupon declared elected.

Several bills were presented and referred. The resolution of Mr. Earle, submitted at the November session, to change the present poor system and for the sale of the county poor house and farm was taken up.

Mr. Earle withdrew the resolution, and offered in its stead one restoring the distinction between town and county poor.

An interesting discussion ensued, in which Messrs. Earle and D. Merrill advocated the change, and Messrs. M. A. Northrup, Tallman and Bates opposed it.

Newman vs Tymeson, et al; 20, opinion by Chief Justice Dixon. Judgment reversed with costs, and venire de novo awarded.

Durkee vs City Bank of Kenosha; 18, opinion by Chief Justice Dixon. Order reversed with costs, and cause remanded.

Racine County Bank vs Kepp, et al; 17, opinion by Chief Justice Dixon. Judgment reversed with costs, and venire de novo awarded.

Craigier, who killed Nelson Broughton in Freeborn county, on the 16th of Sept. 1859, was found guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hung at Albert Lea, on the 1st day of March, 1861, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M.

County Board of Supervisors.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, Jan. 3.

Board met pursuant to adjournment. The committee on miscellaneous accounts reported in favor of allowing several small accounts, and reported without any recommendation a bill of $23,70 from Wilder Parrot, for gas fixtures in the court room. The committee also reported against allowing the claim of $60 from W. H. Ebbeck and J. R. Bennett for defending Daniel Mapes at the recent term of the circuit court. The report of the committee was concurred in, as to the allowance of the bills recommended to be paid and the disallowance of the claims of Messrs. Ebbeck and Bennett. After some discussion, the bill of Mr. Parrott was allowed.

The bond of the county treasurer, with N. B. Howard, James Sutherland, E. A. Foot, J. P. Dickson, R. S. Lawton, E. A. Howland, A. C. Bates, and W. H. Tripp, sureties, was reported correct and approved.

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of cancelling tax certificate No. 363, sale of 1853, and in favor of drawing an order on the county treasury for the amount of the certificate, with interest and cost—the whole amount to be charged to the city and town of Beloit. (The tax had been paid.) Also to cancel certificate No. 12, sale of 1853—a double assessment. Report adopted.

The committee on county poor reported in favor of allowing several small bills, and against allowing a claim of $30 from S. L. Rod for medical attendance. Report adopted.

The committee on roads and bridges reported against the resolution appropriating $300 to the town of Avon to build bridges in that town. Report adopted.

Mr. Bates presented a memorial from McKay & Brother, asking an issue of county orders in place of some they have lost. This matter was laid over from the November session, and again laid on the table.

The committee on county poor reported in favor of allowing the county superintendent to settle the bill of Samuel Sprouse for medical attendance upon the poor in the city of Beloit. Adopted.

The committee on justices' and constables' accounts reported in favor of allowing a number of bills for sheriff's fees, amounting to $696,41.

The financial resources of Massachusetts were never in better condition for such an emergency, and the people are enthusiastic to be enrolled.

Adjutant General Abbott, of New Hampshire, arrived here this afternoon from Washington, and left immediately for Concord, with the intention of recommending to Governor Goodwin that the Granite State be immediately put upon war footing.

Considerable excitement exists in consequence of the reports that the muskets removed from the Springfield army have been distributed over the south. Mr. Whitney, collector of this port, late superintendent of the army at the Granite State, is supposed to be the source of this information.

Eleven o'clock, Friday morning was fixed for the election of a commissioner of the county poor, and the Board adjourned to 9 o'clock Friday.

FRIDAY MORNING, 9 o'clock.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, and the minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The National Fast.
There were services in most of the churches to-day in this city; in which sermons were delivered appropriate to the National Fast, which had been recommended by the President.

A very eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. M. P. Kinney at the Congregational church, which was listened to by a large audience, who, we understand, were well satisfied with its sentiments that they manifested their pleasure by the clapping of hands and stamping of feet. This might easily be considered out of order in a church, but as it was not Sunday, and the occasion was somewhat political as well as religious in its nature, we think there was no great impropriety in it; especially as the sentiments which were approved are evidently sound.

We have a report of this Sermon, and will have the pleasure of presenting it to our readers in full, to-morrow. We shall print extra copies to supply those who desire to send to their friends.

The County Officers.

The new county officers commenced their duties this morning. They are as follows:

Sheriff—J. M. Putnam.

Treasurer—S. Holdredge, Jr.

Register—K. W. Bemis.

Clerk of the Court—Levi Alden.

District Attorney—I. C. Sloan.

Clerk of the Board—S. L. James.

Surveyor—Edward Ringer.

Coroner—John E. Young.

Four of the officers elect have been re-elected by the people, which is sufficient evidence of the high appreciation of the intelligent voters of Rock county of the value of their services. No better certificate of qualifications need be asked by any man.

The four newly elected officers viz: Messrs Putnam, Holdredge, Bemis and Young are all gentlemen of the highest capacity for the several positions which they occupy. Mr. Putnam was the under sheriff during the past two years, and the people like him and the manner in which he attended to his responsible duties, have accordingly promoted him. We understand that he will appoint Mr. Charles E. Church as under sheriff, which will be universally satisfactory, as Mr. Church is known as a capable and efficient business man.

We learn, also, that Mr. Bemis will continue Mr. H. R. Clun, as his deputy in the Register's office, where he has, for three years, so faithfully and correctly attended to his duties. Whether the other officers have appointed deputies we have not learned.

I. O. O. F.—There will be a public installation of officers of Janesville City Lodge, No. 90, at their Hall, Lappin's block Friday evening, Jan. 4.

B. BORNHEIM, Sec'y.

ROBBERY.—John Skinner was arrested today and brought before Police Justice Comstock on a charge of highway robbery. The robbery consisted in forcibly taking a silver watch worth $45, from John Williams. Skinner met Williams last evening in Mosh's saloon and asked him the time. Williams drew his watch from his pocket and told him it was about half past nine o'clock. Williams left the saloon and Skinner followed him up Franklin street, where he tripped him up and took the watch from him. The examination was deferred until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

A BENEVOLENT ENTERPRISE.—The festival advertised at the court room next Wednesday evening is designed for the benefit of a very worthy enterprise, and we hope our citizens generally will give it their aid. The school attached to St. Cuthbert's church is sustained wholly by private effort and at private expense, and assistance rendered in the manner proposed will fall lightly upon those who contribute. As a convivial assemblage the festival a year ago was a very pleasant one, and we have no doubt that the one next week will prove equally so. See the advertisement in another column.

MUFFLER FOUND.—A fur muffler has been left at this office for an owner.

COLWELL'S DRUG STORE.—Among the old friends who are now using our advertising columns are Colwell & Co. Although they are generally described as druggists, their stock is by no means confined to pills or plasters. They have very many useful and ornamental articles required for every day's comfort or convenience, and a general stock of leading family groceries. We take pleasure in calling attention to them and their goods, and refer the reader to their advertisement for fuller information.

The first sacrament of the Lord's supper ever celebrated in Minnesota, was in one of the company rooms of Fort Snelling, in the year 1835, and at that time twenty-two individuals of European extraction partook of the sacrament, and were recognized as the Presbyterian church of Fort Snelling. The church is still in existence, and holds its meetings at the school house near "Ha Ha Falls."

THE DIVORCE MANIA.—The Pittsburgh Chronicle says:

We have on more than one occasion alluded to the large number of persons seeking absolutions from the obligations of matrimony in our county. We learn that twenty-two decrees of divorce have been issued by the court of common pleas within the last year, and that thirty-two applications are still before the court for consideration. The number is entirely too large, if it could be avoided, and shows a state of morals among some of our married folks the very reverse of commendable.

BODIES DISCOVERED.—Sufficient bones and relics were recovered from the ruins of the late fire in Cross' Block, up to last evening, to establish the fact that ROBERT LUNDY, FRENZ BARD, WALLACE CASWELL, ROBERT DENFERT and JACK CAMBE, lost their lives.

This afternoon, a few bones, a piece of flesh preserved from fire by the compression of a heavy timber, a knife and key, were recovered and identified as all that is left of CHARLES McDERMOTT, the sixth victim of this horrid catastrophe. —Free Dem.

The PITTSBURGH EXCITEMENT.—The following extract from a Pittsburgh letter we are permitted to publish. It will interest our readers:

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 29.

The excitement has subsided, the public mind is tranquilized, and the arms and munitions ordered to be sent to the south will be permitted by the populace of Pittsburgh to be sent to their destination. We are mainly indebted for this result—for this entire change in the determination of the people of this city—to the social, moral and political influence of one man, Gen. J. K. Moorehead, as you are aware, is the representative in congress from this district. He is universally respected and esteemed, and his presence was potential in allaying excitement, and he arrived in the very nick of time to prevent collision between our excited population and the government. He went among the people, acted on committees, visited the commander-in-chief, communicated all the information that would allay the apprehensions of the people, and finally attended the meeting of the thousands of his fellow citizens and addressed them impressively, and his reasoning appeals and counsels prevailed. The result is that, to day, the cannon and arms are being transported through the streets of Pittsburgh as quietly and uninterrupted as though no opposition or resistance to their transmission had been declared.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer writes:

"Senator Trumbull is having his residence put in first rate order for the reception of his expected guest, the president-elect, who is expected here in February. Mrs. Lincoln will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Edwards, from whose roof, by the way, she eloped with 'Old Abe,' then a briefless attorney."
